

Children's Minister Susanne O'Day spent most of her growing-up years in Marietta, GA but has lived in Savannah since 2013. She has two sons, Archer (13) and Theo (9), who are the joys of her life. Susanne married her husband, David Smith, in 2024. They live in a little 1931 home with their dog, Salem, and a black cat named Wolfie. In 2010, Susanne graduated magna cum laude with a B.S. in Music Management from Georgia State University in Atlanta.

Susanne came to St. Peter's as Parish Administrator in 2020 and changed roles in summer 2023. Along with children's ministry, Susanne manages St. Peter's communications and website. She is currently in the discernment process for holy orders in the Episcopal church and will begin seminary in 2025.

She enjoys house projects, yard work, time in nature, reading, healthy cooking, and wandering through thrift or antique stores.
