

Aubrey Brawner

Aubrey Brawner was baptized at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Augusta, GA, and had her first years in church choirs there as a member of the Children's Choir. Aubrey and her husband, Jim, moved to Savannah with their children, Jimmy and Miranda, and joined St. Peter's in 2000. They have both served on the vestry and on the Outreach Committee. Aubrey was the chair of the Music Academy Committee and helped organize the volunteers and the summer camps. Most recently she helped with the search for the new Music Director and is excited to be part of that new chapter of St. Peter's program. Aubrey also teaches math in the middle school at Savannah Country Day School.
